From the Pen of Teachers

Zubaan-e-shireen hi Nahi

Zubaan-e-shireen hi nahi, husn-e-kirdar
chahiye,

Har nafas mein thoda sa inkisar chahiye.

Yeh jo tamkanat hai teri, yeh jo gurur-e-nafs hai,

Is fani dunya mein sab be-aitabar hai.

Zarf ho itna ke darya bhi samandur lagne lage,

Tera lahja dushman ko bhi nishatar lagne lage.

Insaan ki pehchan uske nasab se nahi hoti,

Ikhlaf na ho toh zindagi be-adab hi hoti.

Khuloos-e-dil se jo milta hai, wahi mohtaram hai,

Warna dunya mein har shakhs hi mushibat-zada aur
barham hai.

Tawazu (humility) hi tera sab se bada zewar hai,

Yahi woh raasta hai jo manzil-e-akhirat ka rehbar hai.

Goya (speaking) ho toh alfaaz se itratt (fragrance) barse,

Dushman bhi tere husn-e-akhlaq ko tarse.

Maal-o-zar toh faqat ek saraab hai mere dost,

Nek-nami hi asal mein kamayi-e-hawaab hai mere dost.

“A Year to Believe, Try, and Shine”

Mrs. Madhuparna Bose
(Educator)

A new year is like a fresh notebook—clean pages, sharp corners, and endless possibilities. As we step into 2026, remember this: you don't have to be perfect to begin, you just have to begin.

Every day this year is a chance to learn something new, to be a little kinder, a little braver, and a little more curious than yesterday. Mistakes are not failures; they are lessons written in pencil, meant to be erased and rewritten better. Small efforts—reading one extra page, helping a friend, asking one good question—can quietly turn into big achievements.

Make 2026 count by believing in your abilities, respecting your time, and never underestimating the power of hard work mixed with honesty. Set goals that excite you, not scare you. Celebrate progress, not just results. And remember, your character matters just as much as your marks.

This year, write your story with confidence, patience, and hope. Make this page worth remembering.
